

Veterinary Hospital

Objective

The Veterinary Social Worker's primary roles are to provide emotional support to clients and staff, short term interventions, and psychoeducational programs.

License Requirements

- Must be a licensed clinical social worker, LCSW, or must be in the process of obtaining the licensure in order to practice independently.
  - This includes having supervision by an approved LCSW - $30-$60 per hour of supervision for every 30 client hours.
- LCSWs need 30 CE hours in order to renew their license. Of those 30 hours, 20 must be in social work, six must be in ethics and four can be in either professional ethics or social work. As of November 2015, the renewal fee was $120 (<http://www.socialworkguide.org/licensure/tennessee/>).
